To the READER.

After so many considerable Essays of this nature, it were in vain to offer the present Catalogue to the Ingenious of this Age, did it not appear extreamly Valuable in all its Faculties, and in the most polite sort of Learning exceed any that has gone before it; the main part hereof consisting of the Library of a Person of Quality, who in his Travels beyond Seas made himself very well acquainted with the most eminent Authors of all Sciences, and was as curious in Collecting both the best Editions and the fairest Copies, which considered with their Binding do far excel any Books that have hitherto been exposed to publick Sale. I shall not here endeavour to characterize the several Parts of this incomparable Catalogue, but leave the whole to the Censure of the Candid and Judicious Perusers, with this assurance, That there will not again appear together such an intire Collection of the most considerable Historians of all Ages and Nations, both Ancient and Modern.

The latter part of this Catalogue contains a most admirable Collection of Drawings both of History and Architecture, curiously designed in Colours by the most eminent Masters of Europe, with several thousands of Italian and other Prints Ancient and Modern, being of the best Proofs carefully preserved and well conditioned; all which were collected at vast Expence, and great Care, by the same Person of Quality. Who being willing to give the same Pleasure and Satisfaction to the Lovers of such Curiosities as he hath had in the Enjoyment of this excellent Collection, is resolved to expose them to publick Sale by way of Auction, in the same Manner and under the same Conditions that S^r Peter Lely's were formerly sold.

Monday 8th of April

This AUCTION will begin on ~~Tuesday the 9th day of April~~ next, 1689 at the Sign of the Bear in Ave-Mary-Lane, near the West End of S. Paul's Church, continuing day by day the first Five Days of every Week, till all the Books are Sold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are sold; where upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books will be delivered for the Month aforesaid.

IV. That for the further Conveniency of the Learned remote from London, who have not Friends in the City, that are proper and skilful Agents to act for them, or at least cannot constantly attend the Auction, if they please to send their Commissions in time, containing the Page and Number of the Book so desired, and the Price they are willing to give for each Book, with Orders to whom they shall be delivered when bought, and of whom the Money shall be received, the said Commission shall be faithfully executed, directing their Letters to the Auction House mentioned in the Title Page,

For their humble Servant Benj. Walford.

V. The Books (for satisfaction of the Buyers) will be exposed to view for one whole Week before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.

Catalogues are distributed at Six Pence per Book, from the Places mentioned on the Title Page; which Method we have now taken, by the direction of the Learned, for the better accommodation, and more prudent distribution of the Copies than formerly to them, &c. which Six Pence shall be allowed (if demanded) to any Person or Persons that shall buy, or cause to be bought for him or them, to the value of Ten Shillings in the ensuing Sale: Which being so reasonable a Proposal, we question not but all Gentlemen, &c. will readily comply with it.
